DECORATING

In 1928, Carroll Carpenter was commissioned to decorate lamp posts in the city of Gastonia, North Carolina for the holiday season. Eighty nine years later, Carpenter Decorating provides seasonal decorations to more locations throughout the United States and the world than any other company in our industry.

Our Carpenter sales representatives located across the country have experience beyond compare. Having the best quality products in the industry is not all that it takes to satisfy customers. Our exceptional sales men and women can provide product knowledge, quality design assistance, and installation advice. Their daily contact with our factory can assure that every customer inquiry is a question that can be answered.

No matter what size the budget or project, Carpenter Decorating delivers outstanding service and a superior product. Customer satisfaction is the number one goal of Carpenter Decorating Company and our sales professionals.
